Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Pastor: In Holy Baptism, our sister Eleanor was clothed with the robe of Christ's righteousness that covers all of our sins. St. Paul says, "Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death?"

People: We were buried therefore with Jesus by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with Him in a death like His, we shall certainly be united with Him in a resurrection like His. (Romans 6:3-5)

Pastor: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

O God of grace and mercy, we give you thanks for your loving-kindness shown to Eleanor and to all Your saints who, having finished their course in faith, now rest from their labors. Old Testament

Genesis 1:1-4

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

Responsive Psalm

Psalm 23

Pastor: The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

People: He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

Pastor: He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

People: Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Pastor: Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou annointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over.

People: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Epistle

Romans 8:38-39

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Lector: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God!

Holy Gospel

John 3:12-17

Pastor: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 3rd chapter.

People: Glory to you, O Lord!

I have spoken to you of earthly things and you do not believe; how then will you believe if I speak of heavenly things? No one has ever gone into heaven except the one who came from heaven—the Son of Man. Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him." For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

Pastor: This is the word of the Lord;

People: Praise to you, O Christ!
